

Meet the Graduates

Wednesday 8 November 2017 | Stephen Langton Building, Theatre @ 2pm

Joanne Ashman

BA (Hons) Media Production, 2002

I work as a freelance producer/director in TV. I've spent the last few years working on presenter-led wildlife documentaries and I'm just coming to the end of a new BBC One series called 'Animals Behaving Badly'.

Other credits include 'Big Blue Live', 'Springwatch' and 'The One Show'.

Tom Cass

BA (Hons) Media Production, 2015

Currently working as a camera operator and video editor at Epix Media. I work on a wide range of projects and my favourite part of the job is editing. I love seeing a project come together and all the hard work paying off.

Charlotte Fisher
BA (Hons) Media Production, 2017

I am currently working as a Broadcast Journalist for KL.FM, a radio station in King's Lynn. We have more listeners than Radio 2 in our patch. We are also part of the UKRD group (it owns 17 radio stations across the country) and we recently won Team of the Year at The Radio Academy Awards.

Gemma Lowe
BA (Hons) Media Production, 2012

Since graduating I have worked in a number of media, marketing and education roles; my main interests are short promotional films, copy writing, news and content production, and audio editing/podcasting. My current roles also involve a lot of digital projects and web development – I enjoy variety!

Stephanie Marshall
BA (Hons) Film and Television, 2015

I'm currently working at Cartwright Communications as an account manager. Working with national and international brands, my main role is to successfully plan and deliver considered and creative PR and digital campaigns, achieved through liaison with journalists and broadcast media to generate positive press coverage, increase brand awareness and bring real benefit to our clients' businesses.

Joel Murray
BA (Hons) Media Production, 2011

I work in digital marketing for Visit Lincoln: using digital media to inspire and encourage visitors, residents, and business into the area. My main projects are the website and social media. I won a digital award for some videos we produced in 2016. Check out visitlincoln.com and @visitlincoln on social media!

Ayodele Ogunshakin
BA (Hons) Media Production, 2015

I'm working for NBCUniversal as an Office Runner for Monkey Kingdom (the production company that makes Made in Chelsea and other great shows). This is my first job outside of children's TV and it is very different! There's still no typical day, I generally provide assistance in the office, and sometimes on location. Other parts of my job include being responsible for all the kit here and transcribing the videos to create subtitles for a great Huffington Post web-series 'New Activists'.

Darren Scales
MA Media Production, 2008

I am the Managing Director at DARKWAVE Pictures and Backyard Productions. Have filmed on location in Cyprus, Tunisia, Abbey Road and Pinewood Studios. Encouraging filmmakers new and old to take part in productions that not only raise money for charity but also awareness of the realities of filmmaking on a large scale. Also I work part-time at the University as Lecturer in television and film.

Steve Smailes
BA (Hons) Media Production, 2012

I'm a freelance photographer living and working in Lincoln. A large part of my work is shooting for local news website The Lincolnite as well as photographing weddings, commercial, events, music and sports photography. I've had work commissioned by the University of Lincoln & Students Union, Lincolnshire Showground, LIVES, Relentless and many other local businesses and offer printing & photo album solutions to clients.

Sean Strange
BA (Hons) Media Production, 2013

I currently work for Mission Room Ltd as a specialist in 360 film production and delivery. I have produced films for Network Rail, Transport for London, and a number of Universities across the country and recently created the new visitor experience in Cheddar Gorge, 'Beyond the View'. I also freelance as a videographer & photographer for The Lincolnite.

Rosie Turner
BA (Hons) Media Production, 2015

I currently work for BBC Worldwide as a Writer, Presenter and Content Producer for CBeebies. My job involves editorial for Facebook, Twitter & Instagram as well as writing and presenting scripts for YouTube.

I also regularly contribute to BBC Writers' Room as an Interviewer and Host for Women in Comedy projects.
